

Howard H. Cherry Scout Reservation 2012 Camp Staff Application

Applicants are not required to give any information on this form that is prohibited by federal, state, or local law. Because of the close relationship to the mission of Scouting, camp staff members are required to accept the Boy Scouts of America's Declaration of Religious Principle, the Scout Oath, and the Scout Law.

Applicants for camp staff are considered without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, marital, or veteran status, or the presence of a health problem or handicap that is unrelated to the person's ability to perform the job assigned.

This application will be given every consideration, but its receipt does not imply that the applicant will be employed.

BOYS SCOUTS DECLARATION OF RELIGIOUS PRINCIPLE:

The Boy Scouts of America maintains that no member can grow into the best kind of citizen without recognizing his obligation to God and, therefore, acknowledges the religious element in the training of the member, but it is absolutely nonsectarian in its attitude toward the religious training. It's policy that the organization or institution with which the member is connected shall give definite attention to his religious life. Only persons willing to agree with this declaration of principle and the Bylaws of the Boy Scouts of America shall be entitled to certificates of leadership.

Do you agree with the Declaration of principle? Yes No

Scout Oath
On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country
and to obey the Scout Law;
to help other people at all times;
to keep myself physically strong,
mentally awake, and morally straight.

Scout Law
A Scout is:
Trustworthy, Loyal,
Helpful, Friendly,
Courteous, Kind,
Obedient, Cheerful,
Thrifty, Brave,
Clean, Reverent.

Do you agree to abide by the Scout Oath and Law? Yes No
