James E. West

James E. West was the first Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America.

In celebration of the 100 plus years of Scouting, Council Scout Executive Travis Christopher, of the Hawkeye Area Council has initiated a challenge to its members;

Join the ranks of those who want to sustain quality programs for generations to come.

The West Fellowship award is available for gifts of $1000 and up in cash or marketable securities to the Council Endowment Fund.

The West Fellowship award is available for gifts of $1000 and up in cash or marketable securities to the Council Endowment Fund.

Scouting has an amazing 100 plus year history of changing the lives of youth. The Hawkeye Area Council is currently alive, well and growing: We continue to earn the Centennial Quality Council Award for membership growth and retention, quality programming and financial sustainability and the Words to Live by Growth Award for membership. Scouting is the foremost youth organization in eastern Iowa.

Your Endowment gift is the key to sustaining quality programming for generations to come.

Please consider becoming a James E. West Fellow or honoring someone with this distinguished award.

(Payments are accepted for a JEW Fellowship, payable within two years.)

Recognition

The first 200 gifts at the James E. West level of $1000 or more to the Hawkeye Area Council Endowment fund, will receive a signed and numbered copy of this historic print of the Howard H. Cherry Scout Reservation.

Artist Barb Jones Prall, of Marion, with collaboration from Anita Munson, has created a nostalgic collection of camp scenes, painted to inspire memories of your favorite Scouting experience
